

Course Continuing Education Information

Award Period: 7/4/26-7/4/28

Name of Course: Online Support for Transition to Practice: Evidence-Based Practice

CES Event ID: 26-021

Purpose Statement:

The Evidence-Based Practice course is divided into five sections. The sections are divided as follows: 1) Evidence-Based Practice in Healthcare; 2) Research Evidence-Based Practice; 3) Implementing Evidence into Practice; 4) Engaging Patients and Families in Care Decisions Utilizing the Evidence; and 5) Use of Evidence-Based Practice to Ensure Patient Safety. The Evidence-Based Practice course describes the importance of evidence-based practice (EBP), offers strategies for applying EBP, and provides critical thinking exercises to practice finding sources of evidence within their practice setting, identifying facilitators and barriers to EBP implementation, and applying EBP to clinical scenarios.

Learner Outcome Statement:

After completing the Evidence-Based Practice course, learners will define nursing roles in EBP use in their setting.
